VOL. VI. NO. 180. CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1900. PRICE, 5 CENTS

HAWTHORNE RACING.

Seven races again was the order at Hawthorne yesterday, and four of these furnished hair raising finishes. The afternoon was cool and bright, the track was fast, and everything pointed to first class racing. Starter Holtman had big fields to contend with, but he got them away well and promptly as a rule.

Fancy Wood's win of the third event was one of the bright features and had the filly not been as game as a pebble, she could not have scored. Winkfield was up and the speculators backed Fancy Wood heavily at about 7 to 5, but on the far turn the filly and Winkfield got into a jam and at the three-eighths post the pair looked like a 100 to 1 shot. Once straightened away in the stretch, however, Fancy Wood began to gain gradually on the leader. Barbara M., and in the very last stride managed to poke her nose in front. It was a thrilling finish and brought forth much applause from the crowded grandstand.

Limelight, Lomond and Guess Me came tearing through the stretch on equal terms in the fourth race and finished so close together that only the judges could separate them. The race was at seven furlongs, with an even dozen starters, and Mr. Holtman had trouble of his own in getting them away, and when he did give the word the field was badly strung out, with Balk Line left standing still at the post. Guess Me went to the front on the first turn and was the pacemaker throughout. She was joined by Limelight and Lomond at the head of the stretch, and from there to the wire the trio had it hammer and tongs.

In Alcedo Pat Dunne seems to have a three-year-old that will win many purses before the season closes. This handsome bay colt picked up 115 pounds in the fifth event and beat The Unknown and Florizar without an effort, running the mile and a sixteenth in 1:46. The first mile of this race was run in 1:40 flat and the first three-quarters in 1:13, with The Unknown in front. Florizar was always outrun and appeared to sulk in the stretch.

Marsara was heavily backed by a select few at 10 to 1 to beat Onomastus and Algareta in the second race which was at three-quarters of a mile and, well ridden by Mathews, she "delivered the goods" finely. To win, however, Marsara did not have to beat either Onomastus or Algareta but Goebel, and the latter gave her a hard tussle being only beaten by a neck in the last few strides. Onomastus swerved badly in the stretch and was lucky to be third. Algareta raced as if stale and badly in need of a rest and finished a distant fifth. It seems a shame that such a good, game, consistent filly as Algareta when in form should be so badly handled as she has been handled this season.

Bugaboo at 4 to 1 beat Woodstick and Fondo by a narrow margin in the first race.

Cogmoosey and Dutch Comedian, both noted bad actors, were fortunate in getting away in the sixth and seventh races respectively, and both won as they pleased. Cogmoosey was a 2 to 1 favorite, but Dutch Comedian was a heavily backed "good thing," being backed from 8 to 1 down to 4 to 1.

Jockey Knight was fined $25 for loose riding on Grandon and Onomastus.

W. P. Magrane ran Limelight up from $300 to $500 and got him.

Winner—Br. f. by Lamplighter—Falena.
Went to post at 2:15. Off at the first break. Start good. The first six were driving hard. Bugaboo is a good game filly that likes a route, and under a hard drive came from a long way back in the stretch. Woodstick also ran gamely. He had a lot of bad luck and perhaps with clear sailing would have won. Fondo was away flying, had clear sailing, and judging from this race does not amount to much. When Grandon collapsed in the stretch he swerved badly, crowding Omdurman, Hurry and Janowood into the fence. The former could not have been worse ridden had Dupee tried. He got into every pocket and messed the colt about generally.
Overweights—Simmonswald, 4 pounds; Fondo, 1; Woodstick, 2.
Bugaboo, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 1. Woodstick, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Fondo, show, evens. Grandon place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. f. by Tournament—Marsa.
Went to post at 2:45. Off at the second break. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth were doing their best. Marsara was well ridden, took the shortest route and stood a long hard drive gamely. Goebel perhaps should have won. Dupee lost much ground by swinging wide in the stretch and was of little help to him when the pinch came. Onomastus also suffered from poor handling. Knight was slow in getting away and used the colt a great deal in getting up in the first part of the race. He also dropped Onomastus' head when he went after his whip, allowing the colt to swerve from the center of the track to the extreme inside. Goldone made a fair showing. Algareta is stale and badly in need of a rest.
Scratched—(19448) Hermoso, 124; 15467 Maharajah, 98; 15466 King Bermuda, 106; 18805 Contractor Lynch, 95; 18577 Candelabrum, 93.

Winner—Br. f. by Prince of Monaco—Sara.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden but out to the last ounce; second driving to the limit. Fancy Wood was far the best and had to be to win. She met with a lot of interference on the far turn, but luckily got through on the turn and outgamed Barbara M. at the end. The latter ran a cracking good race, and had Rose come on with her at the head of the stretch instead of looking back she might have won. Rega showed a fine turn of speed but, under a weak ride at the end, tired badly. Bonnie Lissak ran below the mark. Fairy Day ran a good race and can be marked for early action.
Scratched—19293 Wampago, 100.
Fancy Wood, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Barbara M., place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Rega, show, 2 to 1. Bonnie Lissak, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Quicklime—Soubrette II.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 15 minutes. Start bad. The first three were close together and driving to the limit. Limelight, under a good ride, barely lasted long enough to win. He was a very tired horse in the last twenty yards and Knight used excellent judgment in not drawing his whip. Lomond improved suddenly and came through the stretch like a whirlwind. Guess Me got away fully in his stride and showed a flash of her old time speed and perhaps could have won with a stronger ride. Barney F. ran a good, game race. So did Sir Kenneth, who was interfered with a dozen different times. Repay showed some speed early but quit in a stride on the far turn.
Overweights—Talma, 1 pound.
Limelight, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Lomond, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Guess Me, show, 8 to 5.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were under keen pressure. Alcedo is a cracking good colt and is in excellent form. He loafed under a stout pull all the way and was never asked to do his best. The Unknown improves with every race and will probably be hard to beat when next out. J. Walsh is hardly strong enough to do him justice. Scarlet Lily ran a good race and Florizar, who seemed to sulk, a bad one. Greenock does not seem to be of much present account.
Alcedo, place, 1 to 3; show, out. The Unknown, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Scarlet Lily, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Florizar, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Went to post at 5:01. Off at the first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second, third and fourth were under keen pressure. Cogmoosey got away flying and won all the way. He is a handy selling plater. Vincennes ran a smashing good race, but was outclassed by the winner. Catastrophe would have given the winner a stout argument with better racing luck. Just as Herting was making his run the gelding stumbled and fell to his knees. Donation made up much ground in the last half mile. Kentucky Babe showed a lot of speed. Admetus appeared dangerous on the far turn, but faded away in the stretch.

Winner—Ch. b. by Teuton—Modjeska.
Went to post at 5:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily. Dutch Comedian was lucky in getting away, had clear sailing throughout, and won without an effort. L. T. Caton was much used in racing to the front down the backstretch and when the pinch came he swerved badly and just did stagger in second. Frangible, after being sharply interfered with on the first turn, made up much ground and ran a good race. Aloha II showed a lot of speed. Little Land had a rough journey. Celeritas seems to be of little or no present account. The Sluggard looked high and was not ready.

Scratched—19472 Josephine B, 98.
Dutch Comedian, place, 2 to 1; show evens. L. T. Caton, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Frangible, show, 6 to 5. Celeritas, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.
